Dear Harold:

How is your work coming?

I've always felt that a lot of P.M. and Agent Oswald plus material like The Warren Report and other fascinating stories could be presented in a book dealing with Domestic Espionage in America.

Your previous book, Frame-Up received no media aid from Oand D but in fairness they do nothing for any of their books.

Certainly, you have the material for a best seller and with the right packaging - - - -.

Have you ever had dealings with Lyle Stuart?

Of course, make them

purely fiscal issues may be involved as per the MacMillan advance.

The Kaplan reply was tasteless and irrelevant but predictable.

The Sirhan case continues to receive buried and very vague coverage.

Sincerely,
